

National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS)

The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) is the U.S. Department of Education's central database for student aid. NSLDS receives data from schools, agencies that guaranty loans, the Direct Loan program, and Pell Grant program, and other U.S. Department of Education programs. If you have received any of these types of federal student aid, your information will be submitted to the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS), and will be accessible by guaranty agencies, lenders, and institutions determined to be authorized users of the data system. NSLDS lists your complete student aid history, including grants, loans, and other financial aid. It also lists your current loan servicer and the status of each of your student loans. To login to NSLDS, go to https://www.nslds.ed.gov/nslds/nslds_SA/ and use your Federal Student Aid ID (the same FSA ID used to sign the Free Application for Federal Student Aid [FAFSA]) to access your student aid history.
